

Fanny Oliveira

Director of Operations – Hispanas Organized for Political Equality

Fanny Arroyo Oliveira is Director of Programs and Operations for Hispanas Organized for Political Equality (HOPE), a California nonprofit, nonpartisan organization dedicated to Latina leadership development, advocacy and education where she provides strategic advice and programming strategy as part of the senior management team. Before joining HOPE, Ms. Oliveira implemented federal community redevelopment grants for both the East Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and the Florence Firestone Chamber of Commerce.

In 2012, Ms. Oliveira was recognized by the editorial board of the largest Spanish language newspaper in circulation in the U.S., La Opinion, with the Mujeres Destacadas (Women of Distinction) Award for her work in advancing Latinas in education.
